ALAMEDA SAILS FOR 'FRISCO TOMORROW

The Oceanic steamship Alameda, Captain Herriman, will sail for San Francisco tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, from the Oceanic wharf. According to schedule she was to leave on Wednesday. This change in her time of departure has been made so that she can make San Francisco one day ahead of time and go on the drydock to be cleaned, sailing from San Francisco on schedule time.

The officers and crew of the Alameda greatly regret that they will be at sea on the day of the races at Kapiolani park, but duty will deprive them of this pleasure ashore.

The usual cargo of sugar, bananas and so forth will be taken to the Coast in the Alameda, and a large number of cabin passengers will go away in her tomorrow.

The Territorial band will be on the wharf, as usual, to play the steamship off. Ordinary mail for San Francisco closes at the postoffice at 3 o'clock.

Following is the list of those who have engaged passage:

C. M. Cooke and wife, Mrs. B. Labie, Mrs. G. Schneider, Mrs. F. Stern and child, Mrs. F. C. Perriman, Mrs. H. Fels, Mrs. Toppas, Mrs. Z. K. Myers, Mrs. Paulding, Mrs. C. H. ### HOW TO SCOLD.

The woman in authority should study consideration of other people's feelings. The common scold or the continual fault-finder is perhaps the most disagreeable person in the world, not only unhappy, herself, but making others so.

Scolding, viewed in one light, is really an accomplishment—that is, when used for the proper correction of servants and children. If you feel called upon to deliver a rebuke to a servant make it clear to the offender that your displeasure is justified; never lose your temper, but be calm and dignified, for remember that your bearing has much to do with the respect that you are held in by those under your authority. Never let a scolding degenerate into nagging, for if you do you lose all claim for respect from the delinquent and the person at fault becomes your critic, and a very scornful critic at that.

Let all scoldings be gauged by the error, but do not make any one rebuke long drawn out. Give each a hopeful ending.

When properly administered a merited scolding quickly bears the fruit of better behavior on the part of the offending one.

Many wives have spoiled the good nature of their husbands by seizing upon some fault, trivial perhaps, and constantly dwelling upon it.

Where a home is made unhappy by a great fault of the husband, if he is worthy of loving and saving, he is more effectively appealed to by tenderness than by denunciation or scorn.

Chuck-chuck is the latest rival of ping-pong in the German capital. It is a kind of indoor curling.

HIS ACTION FINAL

T. McCANTS STEWART SENDS IN A LETTER

Answers Central Committee of Republican Party on Action Regarding His Recent Resignation.

Having received from the Territorial Central committee of the Republican party a communication to the effect that that body had decided to request him to reconsider his determination to resign, T. McCants Stewart has sent the following communication to Secretary J. H. Fisher which is self-explanatory:

Honolulu, Hawaii, June 6, 1902.
J. H. Fisher, Esq., Secretary of the Republican Territorial Central Committee, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Dear Sir:—I have your kind favor of May 26, advising me that you have been directed to inform me that my resignation under date of May 11, 1902, was read at the meeting of the Territorial Central Committee, May 22, 1902, whereupon acceptance was deferred and on motion it was voted "that Mr. Stewart be requested to reconsider his resignation and that the Secretary forward to him suitable communication to that effect."

Please convey to the committee my hearty appreciation of their courteous action, and say that my determination to retire from politics for the present is final.

Because of this kindly expression of the committee, I deem it my duty to say that all explanations of my resignation, which lie outside of the reasons given in my letter, are without any foundation whatsoever. For example, the Star, although treating public questions broadly and individually fairly, expresses nothing more than its opinion in its explanation, that I shall be a candidate for the Legislature. Having no law partner, I could not afford to serve the people in such capacity. And the editorial suggestion in the Advertiser, that I am trying to secure the nomination to Congress of Judge Humphreys by the House Rule Republican party is too absurd to deny.

I hope that the Republican party, in whose ranks I shall remain, may become at no distant day the majority party, and may continue long in popular favor by always making character and capacity its only test for advancement in party council, and for promotion in the public service, and by always administering the affairs of the government impartially, honestly and economically.

With final expressions of appreciation, I am, yours truly,
(Signed) T. McCANTS STEWART.

WIDOW SECURES RIGHT OF DOWER

statutory limit, but cannot claim dower on improvements made by a purchaser from an heir. Her money allowance in lieu of her dower right is to be ascertained and reported to the court by a commissioner to be hereafter appointed.

An appeal is noted by defendants. Judge Gear has signed a decree in the case of Isaac Testa vs. H. Kauai and the executor and heirs of the late Antonio Rosa. It is adjudged that in certain foreclosure proceedings the said Rosa acted as the agent and trustee for the complainant, F. J. Testa, who is appointed trustee in place of Rosa. Isaac Testa is required to execute a deed to his new trustee conveying all the right, title, interest and estate of H. Kauai, mortgagor, to the property described in the mortgage. The parties are charged with their respective costs. The property thus recovered by Isaac Testa consists of four pieces in Koolauloa district of this island:—one containing 1.59 acres, the second 45.38 acres, the third 1.40 acres and the fourth all the land described in Amana 2 of Royal Patent 2909, L. C. A. 4065.

Judge Humphreys overruled the demurrer and denied the motion to dissolve the temporary injunction in the equity suit of Kanulani vs. Kalai, bill to cancel and set aside deed, etc.

The accounts of S. K. Kane, administrator of the estate of William C. Narkham, were approved by Judge Humphreys.

Judge Humphreys granted a decree in the Kamalo Sugar Co. case. In accordance with the Supreme Court's decision, giving the defendants five days to comply with the terms of judgment.

The Supreme Court session opened this morning. A motion to quash the writ of error in H. Hackfeld & Co. vs. Hilo Railroad Co., made by defendant, was argued and submitted. Kinney, Ballou & McClanahan for plaintiff; Hetch & Sillman for defendant. Judge Robinson sat with Justices Galbraith and Perry in place of Chief Justice Frazar, disqualified.

VAUDEVILLE AT ORPHEUM

The Sutton-Cogill Company will arrive on the Hongkong Maru which is due on June 13 but is expected to arrive two or possibly three days ahead of time owing to alterations to be made in San Francisco. Glowing accounts of several of the members of the combination come from the Bijou Theatre, Sydney, where they played under the management of Harry Rickards, Australia's greatest local entertainer. Rose Aquinaldo, is credited with an unusually attractive stage appearance and the ability to style herself the most wonderful contortionist in her sex. She, apparently does not confine herself to mere tying herself into complicated knots and postures but has some balancing feats, accomplished with the aid of hands and teeth that are little short of marvelous.

Almee Tasma has an aerial wire with which she introduces many novelties of balancing on the high wire and Adalina Sarina will perform brilliant and startling feats on the trapeze.

Harry Cogill himself is not unknown to Honolulu, having passed through here many years ago en route to a professional engagement in Australia where he has remained since. He is a clever comedian and a most entertaining singer. Saturday night should see the Orpheum well crowded after the races. The box office sale will open on Thursday morning at the Orpheum, the usual prices prevailing.

In the athletic exhibition which is to be held under the auspices of the Honolulu Athletic Club in the Opera House on the evening of the 11th of June, the fencing bout will take place between Prof. Le Beuf and his pupil, Robert Moore. The French fencing master is well known for his skill and Moore is said to be very good. Fois will be used in the encounter.

A complete set of new stamps has been ordered for the Orange River Colony.
